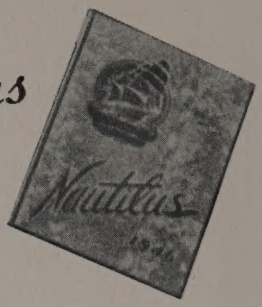
Purpose Of The Nautilus



"THE NAUTILUS"

"Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul
As the swift seasons roll!
Leave thy low vaulted past!
Let each new temple nobler than the last
Shut thee from heaven with a dome more vast,
Till thou at length art free,
Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea."

--Oliver Wendell Holmes.

The Nautilus has as its main purpose the preservation of memories. During the years in the halls of The Cincinnati Bible Seminary a student finds himself extremely busy attending classes, working, studying, and preaching. Few have time to take pictures and make an authentic record of happenings for future reference. Thus, the Nautilus Staff, composed of members of the Senior Class, accomplish this task in an attractive manner for each student, faculty member, and friend of the Seminary.

Another purpose is to advertise The Cincinnati Bible Seminary. Friends may read of the great accomplishments of the Seminary, see pictures of different phases of Seminary life, and know that the Seminary strives to be "loyal to Jesus Christ and every teaching of His Word." Prospective students may catch "the family spirit" which envelops the Seminary and decide that this is the place where they may receive training to better serve the Christ.

Finally, year by year, the Nautilus has shown and will continue to show the rapid growth of the Seminary both in number of students and in physical equipment. The class of 1950 is glad that this year's Nautilus finds the Seminary "on the heights but every climbing."

President Perry

When Woodrow W. Perry was elected to the presidency of The Cincinnati Bible Seminary, the entire brotherhood eyed the future of the school with some concern. Quickly adjusting himself to his new position, President Perry soon dispelled any doubts about his ability as an executive. The improvements in the physical facilities of the school, the friendly student-administration relations, and the healthy spiritual atmosphere of the Seminary all bespeak his ability as an aggressive, Christian leader of our Alma Mater. He has fully justified the confidence placed in him by the trustees and constituents of the Seminary.

Our prayer is that God may continue to grant him physical strength and spiritual wisdom that he may faithfully direct the course of our Alma Mater for many years to come.

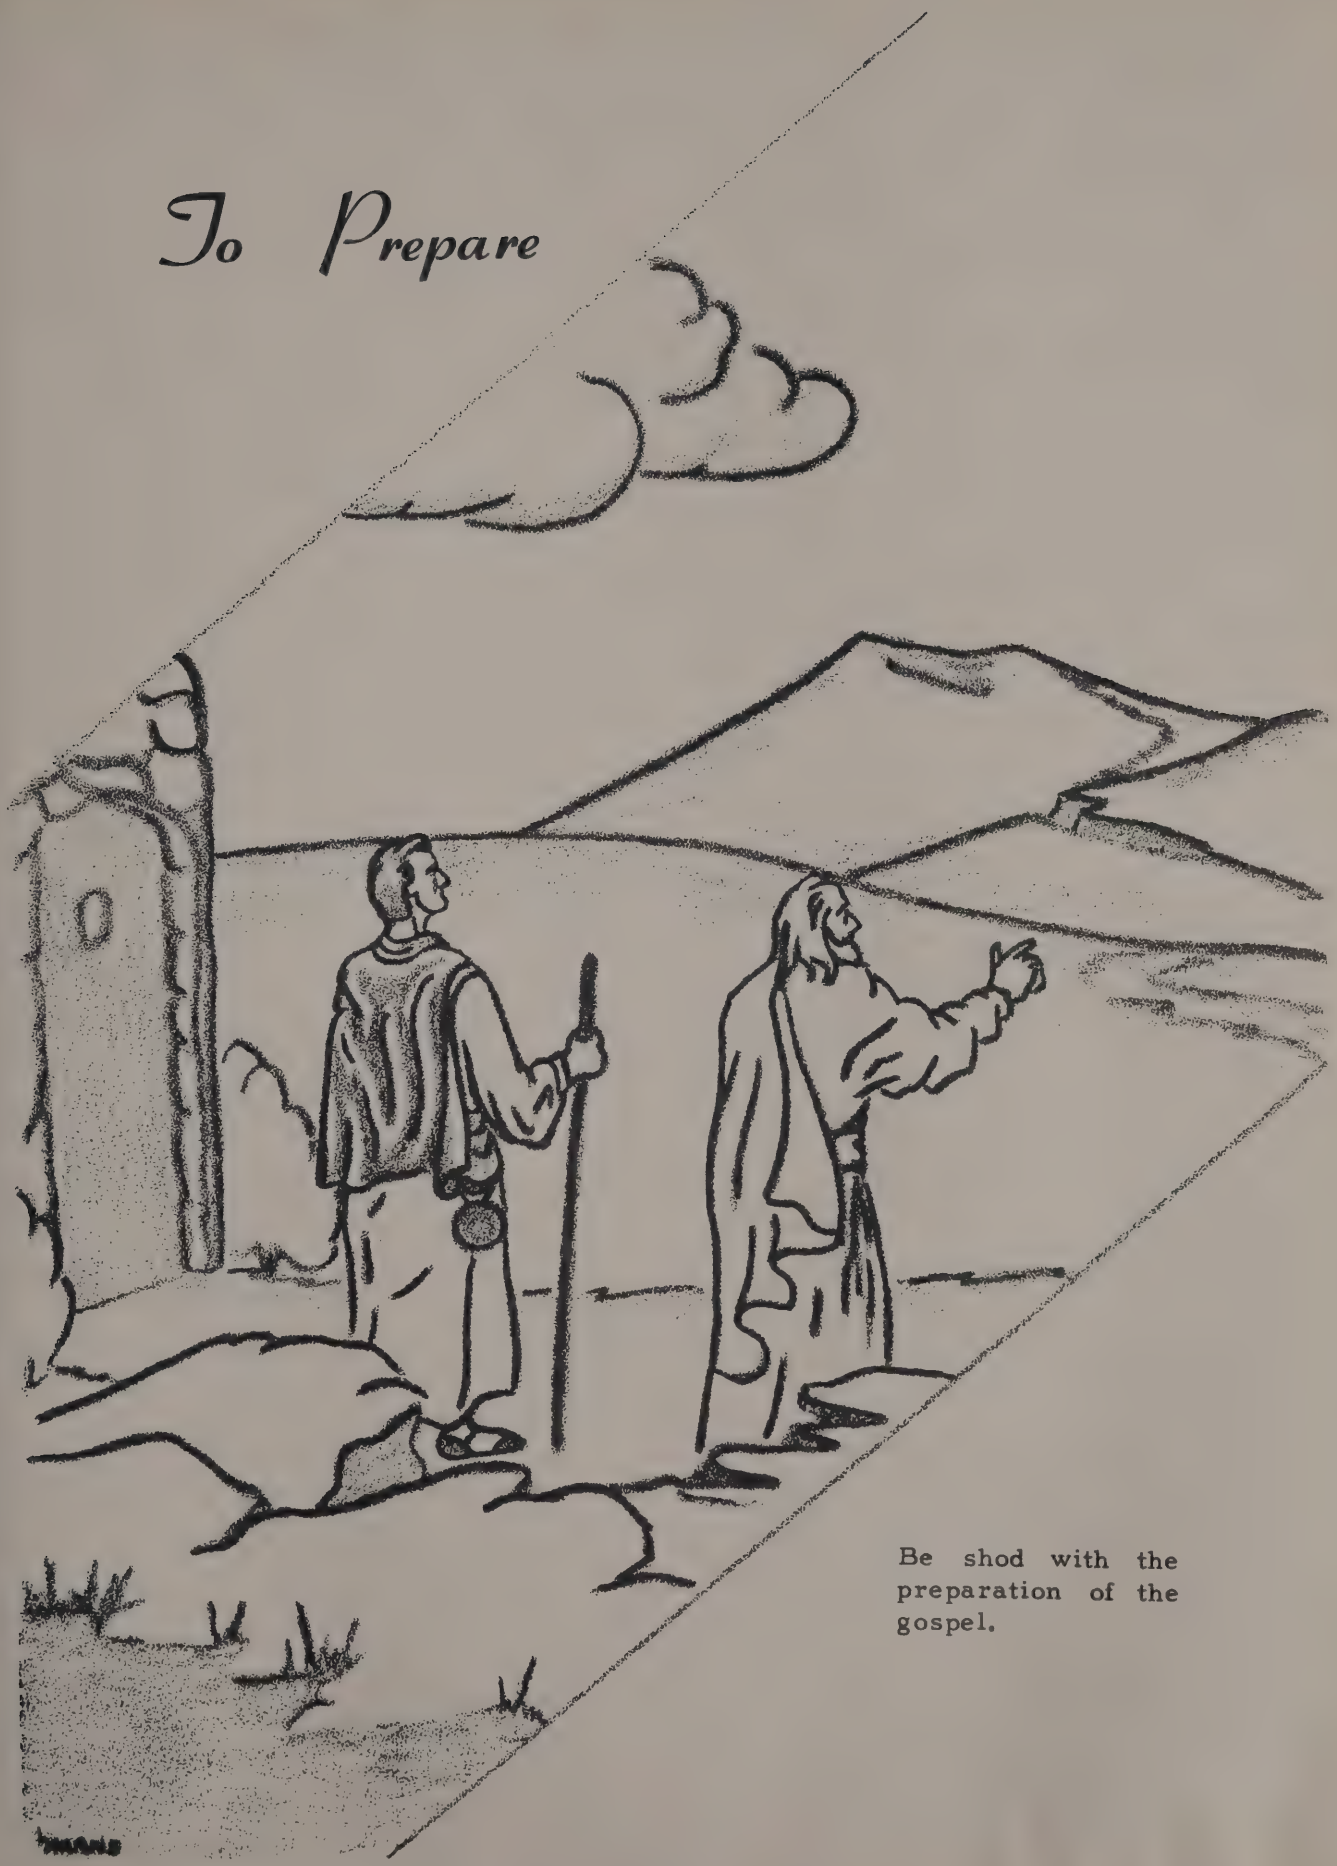
Foreword

As sojourners and pilgrims we, the Class of 1950, are departing from The Cincinnati Bible Seminary to travel farther along the pathway of life.

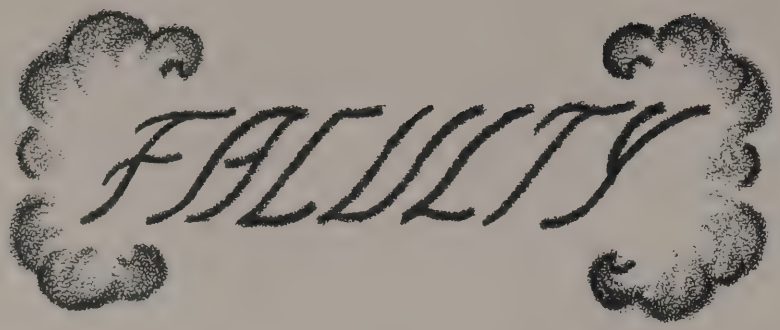
Humbly we present this Nautilus with the desire that it will serve as a storehouse of pleasant memories associated with this passing year. In years to come, we, by glancing through these pages, will be able to live again the happiness we knew here.

Remembering that our citizenship is in heaven, we beseech all others of like precious faith to walk with us as pilgrims and sojourners on this earth looking forward to that city which hath a foundation whose builder and maker is God.

To Prepare



Be shod with the preparation of the gospel.



A Word Concerning The Faculty

During the past four years, we have been privileged to study under teachers who have trained us to follow the perfect example of the greatest teacher that ever stirred the heart and stimulated the mind of a pupil.

The members of the faculty believe without reservation in the Word of God, are fully awake to their obligations and responsibilities, and devote their best energies to their work.

Because of their teaching, our faith has been strengthened and we have been filled with the desire to tell all men of the living Christ.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 1950

When Paul wrote to the church in Rome, he declared, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth, to the Jew first and also to the Greek." Rom. 1:16

Every Christian should be interested in the power described by Paul. Particularly should this be true of those who seek a more effective way to serve Jesus Christ. There is a power in the gospel. We want to be sure that we make proper use of it. In order to use this power, we must have a clear concept of what the power is.

The power of the gospel is not derived from great wealth devoted to the proclamation of the gospel. We know that comparatively speaking, very little of the world's wealth is devoted to this purpose. Of course, wealth properly consecrated is a tremendous advantage in the furthering of the cause of Jesus Christ. Wealth not consecrated will fail to produce the result which is characteristic of the gospel of Jesus Christ. How much can be done with so little has been demonstrated by the Cincinnati Bible Seminary. Actually the school spends less than one dollar per day per student to maintain its services of instruction, housing, and cafeteria. Yet the Seminary is an effective instrument in the spread of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Those connected with the school have depended upon the power to be found in the gospel.

The power of the gospel is not found in physical force. Many of the world religions had their beginning and maintain their position through the use of force. Physical force was not used in the first great movement of the gospel through the world. It was used later in the history of the church, but always to the detriment of the church and never to its upbuilding.

One of the lines of argument which will be presented to you to secure your support for the so-called "ecumenical movement" is the influence such a "super-church" may have upon legislation, nationally and internationally.

Good legislation is important to the country and to the world. Legislation alone is not the answer to the problems facing the world and the church. The Prohibition Amendment to the constitution of the United States was a good law. Those interested in the abolition of the liquor traffic temporarily lost their case by depending upon the law alone. Legislation, even with physical force to back it up, is not the power described in the gospel.

The power of the gospel will not be found in the perfect life you live before the people you serve. Indeed, you will fail in many things. You must, of course, keep clearly before you the objective of perfection in your daily life. Striving toward this goal you will come closer to achieving it. Perfecting is imputed to the Christian through Christ.

Do not make the mistake then of thinking that perfection as an orator, or in dress, or in knowledge of good taste in things social will produce the power that the results of the gospel demand. These things, together with the higher spiritual attainment, will be an objective but will not produce the power peculiar to the gospel.

You will receive no great power for the fulfillment of the purposes of Christ's kingdom on the earth from great men. The greatest men on the face of the earth today, in the eyes of God, are those who are at work for Jesus Christ. As the world looks at it, not many of the great men are associated in the work of the Kingdom.

The power of the gospel is not to be found in great wealth, in the application of physical force, or in the perfection in the lives of those who follow Christ, or in the great men associated in the kingdom of God. Whence is this power that can change the direction of the lives of men?

The power of the gospel is to be found in the truth of the gospel. You must always keep clearly in mind the factual nature of the gospel of Jesus Christ. The facts that Jesus died for our sins according to the Scriptures, was buried, was raised again the third day according to the Scriptures, were attested by a sufficient number of eye witnesses who were intelligent and honest men. There can be no doubt of the truth of the gospel. The facts of the gospel stand established as the supreme historical facts of all history. If these are rejected, other historical events commonly accepted by all men must be rejected. The facts of the gospel are powerful.

The gospel also derives its power from the love evidenced in it. The love of God for man is one of the supreme mysteries of the ages. It is made known through the gospel of Jesus Christ. His death was for our sins. He rose from the grave to implant hope within us. Though man was sinful, God "gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." This is the supreme exhibition of love of the ages.

The love of God for man is proclaimed by the promises of the gospel. How tender and how wonderful they are! What a responsive chord they strike within the breast of man! Make these wonderful promises known to all with whom you come in contact! The power of the gospel is delivered from the love exhibited in the gospel.

The love made known in the gospel is demonstrated by the warnings of the gospel. This is strange and foreign to the ears of some in our generation. However, it is true that any man who fails to warn another of an impending disaster which may be avoided, is derelict in the duty of love.

Sometimes a student in school may have difficulty with a particular subject. Often a professor will call the student in to give warning and aid to prevent a failure. By doing this he demonstrates love. By voicing the warnings of the gospel you in no way indicate that you wish any one to be lost, but rather that they heed the warnings and be saved. The warnings of the gospel make known the love displayed in the gospel. (II Pet. 3:9)

The love of God is also seen in the plain commands of the gospel. A great professor seeks to simplify his teaching to make it as understandable as possible. A good teacher avoids the obscure expressions, however scholarly they may seem, but strives to make known his meaning in the simplest and clearest terms possible. Often arduous toil is involved in this problem of simplification.

The very clarity of the commands of the gospel of Jesus Christ demonstrates the love of God for man. God made His will known to man. No outstanding intellect is needed to understand that we are to believe in Christ, repent of sins, confess Christ, be buried in Christian baptism with Him, and then strive to live according to His will for us. The simplicity of the commands of the gospel demonstrates that God loved us enough to want us to understand what we must do to be saved.

The proclaimer who departs from these commands, so clearly presented by the Christ, has demonstrated he has lost his love for man by refusing to make known the clear commands of the gospel.

May the love that is found in the gospel of Jesus Christ be found in you. May the power that is in the gospel of Christ flow freely through you. It will to the extent that you allow it. The Ephesian letter promises, "Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all we ask or think according to the power that worketh in us." (Eph. 3:20). You have unlimited power at your disposal. Yours is the choice as to whether you shall use this power. God grant that you and I may exhibit our love for man by using the power that flows from the gospel of Christ.

Our Sponsors

We the class of 1950 are deeply indebted to our sponsor, Prof. Albert Carver. He, with his wife, has led us through these four years of our pilgrimage and by example and teaching has prepared us for the "way of life" which is before us.

As Seniors we have reached the summit of the hill of four years of seminary study.

For those students coming to C.B.S. after having matriculated in some other school, and for those returning to C.B.S. for continuation of study after completion of baccalaureate work in the Seminary, the graduate courses of the school offer an opportunity for further study and attainment of Master of Arts and Bachelor of Divinity degrees. The graduate work required for these degrees is of a quality which compares favorably with other colleges and seminaries. Scholastic attainment is important in the graduate work, but never to the extent that it overshadows the importance of fidelity to God and Christ.

ACTIVITIES

Interspersed with the strenuous hours of concentration upon the assignments made by relentless pedagogues, there are of necessity those hours of less exhaustive occupation. Those relaxing hours are furnished in the various activities which are sponsored by the school and the classes within the school. Although some of these activities are sometimes inclined to arouse the risibilities of even the most sober, they are nevertheless conducted within the bounds of Christian fun and fellowship. Many of the activities are of an outright constructive nature. In the final summary of activities at C.B.S., the old saw--that "All toil and no recreation makes Jack a prosaic youth," is not given much chance to be tested.

OF THE CINCINNATI BIBLE SEMINARY

Christ-exalting faculty
Bible-centered curriculum
Scholarship in an atmosphere of faith

VOLUME I, NUMBER 1

JANUARY, 1950

Mr. Roy Blackmore became the Promotional Director of the Cincinnati Bible Seminary in December 1949. His duties consist of editing a monthly publication, "Report," in promoting the new building for the school, and in visiting the various churches to present the school's program.

Commercial Club

The purpose of the Commercial Club is to further the cause of Christ and to help those who are learning business practices for use in the Master's Kingdom. The sponsors of the Club are Mr. Winter and Mrs. Crawford. The officers are as follows: President, Thelma Fisher; Vice-President, Gerald Downey; Secretary-Treasurer, Doris Burks; and Corresponding Secretary, John Nixon. The meetings are scheduled on the second Monday of each month and include both educational and social activities.

The Alma Mater Staff

The Students of The Cincinnati Bible Seminary publish weekly a paper known as THE ALMA MATER. Some thirty students with journalistic inclinations make up the staff of this publication. Through this news sheet the student body is kept informed of the interesting happenings of other students, and is inspired by many feature articles and editorials. William Ward is Editor-in-Chief, Elinor Pickel is Associate Editor, and Jocelyn Beeman is the Faculty Advisor.

Our School Year

WORKERS AROUND SCHOOL

There are few around the Seminary who do quite so much manual labor for our physical convenience and comfort, and do it so unobtrusively as Mr. Dusenberry, caretaker; Mrs. Dusenberry and Miss Beerbower, cooks; and Miss Elliott school nurse. These are assisted by others, but upon their shoulders rests the responsibility for many decisions and the successful operation of the physical facilities of the school. It would be well for us to express to them our appreciation of their work.

1. Everett polishing porcelain. 2. Three shine boys. 3. Repairmen.

4. Eradication of the transliteration. 5. Dusie and stooges. 6. A painting weaver, confusion of trades.

More Workers

Conference on Evangelism

The Conference on Evangelism, held annually under the auspices of the Cincinnati Bible Seminary, is designed to promote the cause of New Testament Evangelism. Each fall brethren of like precious faith rally to hear the Word of God set forth in its simplicity and purity and to enjoy Christian fellowship.

The above picture demonstrates the various avenues of Christian service open to students of the Seminary.

The Conference

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP IS ENJOYED BY ALL--PROFESSORS, STUDENTS, AND OUR BELOVED FRIENDS.

THE VISITORS AT THE CONFERENCE ON EVANGELISM HAVE THE PRIVILEGE OF SHARING TOGETHER IN PHYSICAL FOOD AS WELL AS SPIRITUAL FOOD. AFTER OUR BODIES WERE FILLED, BROTHER FLOYD PENCE FILLED OUR HEARTS WITH THE "BREAD OF LIFE."

November

DEBATE

Each year the Forensic Society of the school sponsors the inter-society debate. On November 17 the Philothean society matched its team of debators against the Phileusebian team. After an hour of logical reasoning and powerful speaking, the Phileusebian debaters, who were defending the debate trophy, came out as the losing team. By virtue of the win, the Philothean team regained the cup for a year.

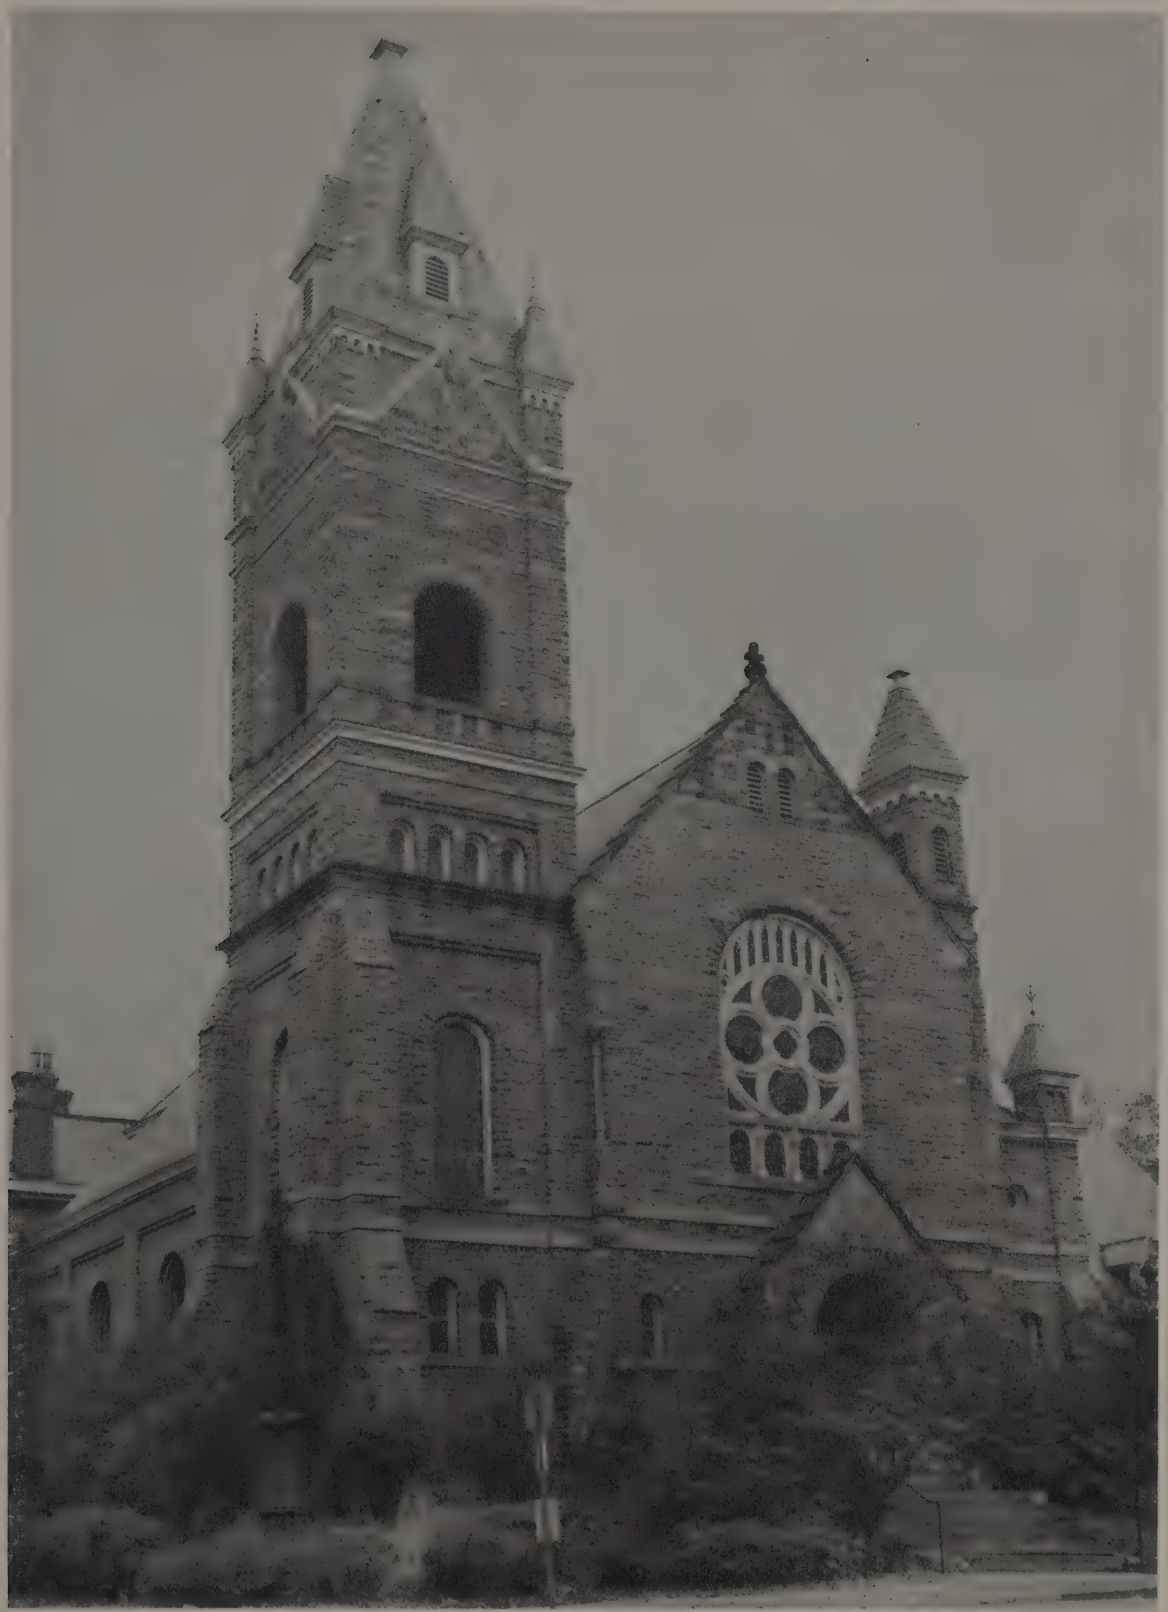
Our Campus

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

High atop one of the elevations of Price Hill, overlooking the heart of the Queen City, stands the Administration Building of the Cincinnati Bible Seminary. This building, which has long been a landmark of the city, has witnessed a great many changes within, but outwardly it is still very much at home among the stately trees which furnish a grand setting for such a structure.



The Chapel of the Cincinnati Bible Seminary recalls to our minds many pleasant memories. This is the scene of many student weddings, of the various programs of the school, and of the devotional chapel services.

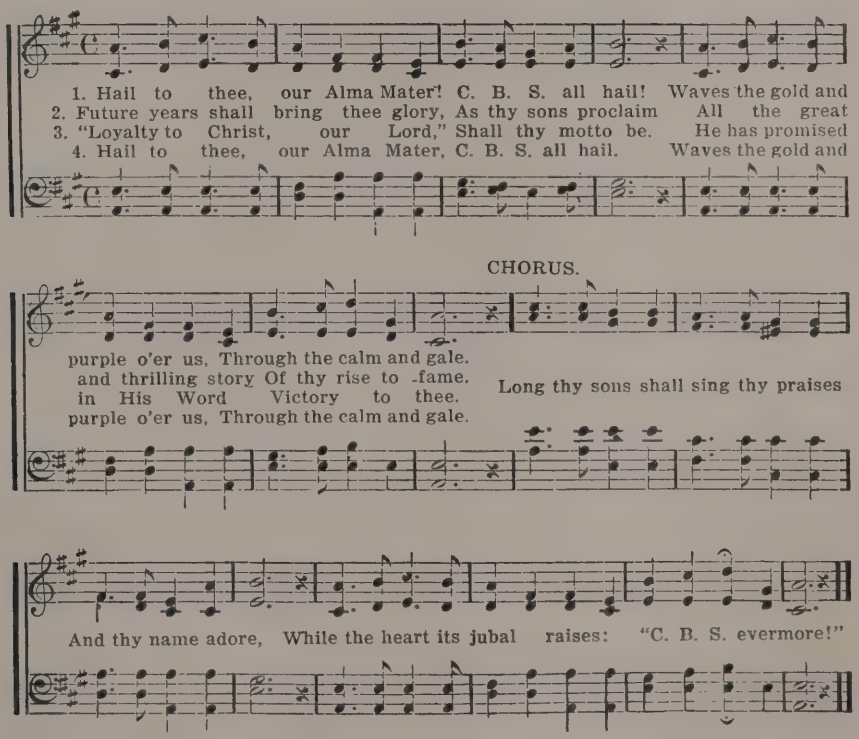
Hail to C. B. S.

THE ALMA MATER SONG

Ralph L. Records — Air: Annie Lisle



1. Hail to thee, our Alma Mater! C. B. S. all hail! Waves the gold and
2. Future years shall bring thee glory, As thy sons proclaim All the great
3. "Loyalty to Christ, our Lord," Shall thy motto be. He has promised
4. Hail to thee, our Alma Mater, C. B. S. all hail. Waves the gold and CHORUS.
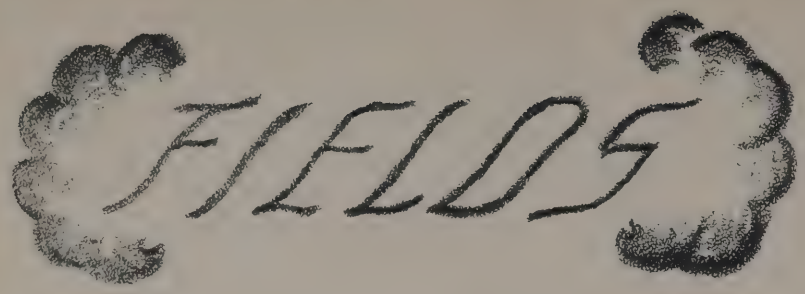
purple o'er us, Through the calm and gale.
and thrilling story Of thy rise to fame.
in His Word Victory to thee.
purple o'er us, Through the calm and gale.
Long thy sons shall sing thy praises
And thy name adore, While the heart its jubal raises: "C. B. S. evermore!"

We, the class of 1950, pray that in the years of destiny that lie ahead, our beloved Alma Mater may ever be true to the words of this song. May she ever be "Loyalty to Christ, our Lord" in deed as well as in word, for therein lies the future glory of our school.



When a student completes his work at the Seminary, he has just scaled the first of life's mountaintops. Ahead in the vast world lie other mountain tops challenging us on to greater heights. "As sojourners and pilgrims," consecrated young men and women have gone forth to climb the mountain tops of service for the Master. May God strengthen these, our brethren in the faith, who labor in the task of evangelizing the world.

To Go

". . .Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest."

THE CHRISTIAN RESTORATION ASSOCIATION

702 Peoples Bank Building
Cincinnati 2, Ohio

We rejoice in the fellowship of The Christian Restoration Association and The Cincinnati Bible Seminary in the promotion of "the common salvation" and the common faith."

The purpose of the Association is to preach The Gospel and build churches of Christ in America, and to defend The Gospel and the churches of Christ from the enemies of the cross of Christ and the despoilers of the churches of Christ.

The Association publishes the Restoration Herald--a journal of "the faith which was once for all delivered unto the saints."

Greeting and God speed to the class of 1950. "Say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfill it."
